SUB: Ineligibility of Secondary Iron and Steel Mill products (including Tinsplate), for import under U.S. AID Loan.

No. 61/AID(PN)/68.—Consequent on the placement of secondary products of Iron and Steel Mills (including secondary tinsplate) on the ineligible commodity list, making them ineligible for AID financing, it has been decided not to issue import licences for these items under U.S. AID Non-project Loans.

2. As regards import licences already issued for the aforesaid items, it has been decided as follows:—

- (a) The licensees may make procurement arrangements under U.S. AID financing, in accordance with the conditions of the specific Loan under which the licences have been issued, where:—
 - (i) Letters of Credits have already been issued or
 - (ii) Orders have been placed or
 - (iii) Tender notices have been published in the Small Business Circulars
- (b) Against import licences in respect of which none of the conditions indicated at (a) above have been fulfilled import of the items will not be allowed under U.S. AID Loan.

3. Actual users holding valid licences may approach the licensing office concerned of the Iron and Steel Controller within 3 weeks from the date of this Public Notice or within the validity period of the import licence, whichever is earlier, for conversion of the import licence for import from other sources.

SUB: Credit facilities in respect of imports from U.S.A. under U.S. AID Commodity Programme Assistance, 1966 (AID Loan No. 386-H-160).

No. 60/AID(PN)/68.—Attention is invited to Iron & Steel Controller's Public Notice No. I&E/IV/10-13/66, dated 7-10-66, as amended from time to time, setting out the terms and conditions for import under U.S. AID Loan No. 386-H-160 including Iron and Steel Controller's Public Notice No. 17/AID(PN)/67, dated 30-3-1967.

2. The position with regard to withdrawal of Credit facilities provided for in Clause (VIII) of the Appendix to the Public Notice No. I&E/IV/10-13/66, dated 7-10-66, and as announced in the Public Notice No. 17/AID(PN)/67, dated the 30th March, 1967, has been reviewed. It has now been decided that credit facilities offered by suppliers can be availed of by importers provided:

- (i) The U.S. supplier, at his own risk, is willing to sell to the Indian importer without requiring the establishment of a letter of credit as a basis of payment.
- (ii) the U.S. supplier is agreeable to extend the credit without charging the importer interest for this accommodation either directly or indirectly.
- (iii) the period of Credit does not extend beyond 90 days after the date of shipment.
- (iv) the U.S. supplier is agreeable to the payment procedure indicated herein.
- (v) the importer makes the deposit as detailed in the succeeding paragraph within eighty days of the date of shipment or not later than one month after the date of expiry of the validity period of the licence exclusive of grace period whichever is earlier.

3. The supplier shall forward to the importer the shipping documents to enable him to clear the goods from the port. The invoice figuring in the shipping documents shall show in dollars the gross sales amount, net price, commission payable to the supplier's agent in India, if any, and the name and address of the agent. Within eighty days of the date of shipment, or not later than one month after the date of expiry of the validity period of the licence, exclusive of grace period, whichever is earlier, the importer should deposit to the credit of the Government of India in the Head of Account indicated in Note (1) below in the Reserve Bank of India, New Delhi or the State Bank of India, Delhi, showing the Accountant General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, as the Accounts Officer responsible for adjusting the credit, the rupee equivalent of the net price shown in the invoice calculated at Rs. 757.50 for $100.00, plus 1/3 of 1% of the said rupee equivalent of the net price towards U.S. Bank charges and submit the treasury challan evidencing the deposit by registered post to the Iron and Steel Controller, (DLF Credit Cell), 33, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, enclosing copies of the invoice/shipping documents. The challan, together with one set of documents detailed in Annexure "A" to this Public Notice, should be accompanied by a letter in form in Annexure "B" to this Public Notice marked in red on the top "Credit Facilities Case" and requesting the Iron and Steel Controller, Calcutta to authorise payment of the net amount in dollars to the U.S. supplier in question. The agent in India of the U.S. supplier should be paid on the date of deposit to the Government an amount in rupees equivalent to the value of the agents' commission indicated in the invoice, calculated at the rate of exchange applicable to the date of deposit, after obtaining a certificate from him to the effect that:—

- (i) he has performed services in India constituting a direct and substantial contribution towards securing the sale of the commodity or commodity related service financed by AID hereunder.
- (ii) he has performed such services in India, and
- (iii) he maintains a regular place of business in India.

If no payment of agents' commission is involved, the rupee deposit to be made to the Government Account shall be for the full value of the invoice/shipment. A certificate should be recorded in the letter forwarding the challan to the Iron and Steel Controller, Calcutta, where payment of commission to the Indian agent is involved to the effect that the agent has been fully paid in the manner indicated above. If the deposit, the letter forwarding the challan and the shipping documents are in order, the Iron and Steel Controller, Calcutta will authorise a U.S. Bank holding a Letter of Commitment from AID, Washington, to make the payment of the amount involved to the U.S. supplier in question under the letter of Commitment on the presentation of the requisite AID documentation detailed in Annexure "A" to this

Public Notice and claim reimbursement from AID Washington.

NOTE 1.—The rupee equivalent will be creditable under the head of account "F—Deposits and Advances—Part II Deposits not bearing interest—C—Other—Deposit Accounts—Civil Deposits—Deposits for purchases abroad (i) Purchase under AID Loan No. 386-H-168.

NOTE 2.—It should be noted very carefully that the Exchange rate indicated above is the prevailing composite rate of exchange and any change in the same, as and when decided upon by the Government of India, will be communicated to the importers' their bankers.

4. The procedures of payment to the U.S. suppliers and payment of commission to their Agents in India notified in Public Notice No. I&E/IV/10-13/66, dated 7-10-66, as amended from time to time will be deemed to have been modified on the above lines in so far as transactions involving credit facilities are concerned.
